

and two Deputies from Washington, D.C. DUSM [redacted] will be the Deputy-in-Charge for the Marshals Service, and DUSM [redacted] will be the Assistant Deputy-in-Charge. DUSMs [redacted] and [redacted] will make team assignments each day and will be responsible for coordinating with the other agencies. b7C

3. The USFS will be designating a holding area for prisoners and will be responsible for moving prisoners to and from the designated location. The Marshals Service will assist agencies in transporting prisoners from the site to the designated jail facility. The Marshals Service will send [redacted] from the arresting agency and will assist with a transport van. b7E, b7C

C. Coordinating Instructions:

1. DUSMs will be required to meet in Albuquerque, NM by 5:00 pm at the Federal Courthouse on June 20, 2009.
  - a. DUSM will meet every morning at 7:00 in the parking lot of the Circle A Ranch/Hostel, Cuba, NM and will be prepared to leave for the gathering site. DUSM [redacted] will conduct inspections of each DUSM to assure they have brought the proper equipment. b7C
  - b. All rendezvous times with other Law Enforcement Agencies will be announced at a later time.
  - c. The execution times of the day's daily events will be determined the night before after DIC DUSM has met with the USFS to determine the next day's tasks.
  - d. Specific tasks are still TBD.
  - e. Schedules are subject to change dependant upon the day's mission. Other agencies may request the assistance of the USMS in a particular operation requiring a unique schedule.
  - f. At 6:00 pm each day DUSM will leave the gathering site and return to the Motel where they will debrief the day's events.
2. DUSM will travel together to and from the gathering site. DUSM will bring a minimum of three cars per day and one transport van to the site each day.
3. The route to the site is Forest Road 126 to Forest Road 70. At the intersection of Forest Road 70 and Forest Road 69 is the main entrance for the gathering.
4. The U.S. Attorney's Office, the USFS, the USMS, and Federal Magistrate Court Judge L. Garcia have met on several occasions in